

THE CAMBRIDGE CRYSTALLOGRAPHIC DATA CENTRE
NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

Dated the .....

This is a contract between the Cambridge Crystallographic Data Centre (hereafter called the "CCDC") of 12 Union Road, Cambridge, CB2 1EZ, England, on the one hand and on the other, to enter into the following Agreement for access to the scoring function code DrugScore<sup>CSD</sup>, derived from the Cambridge Structural Database (the "Software").

.....

(hereafter called the "Organisation"),

The CCDC will freely supply the Software, to the Organisation, who may use it only under the terms and conditions of the master contract (the "Contract") between CCDC and the Organisation, dated ....., governing access to the Cambridge Structural Database System. Should the Contract be terminated or not renewed, use of the Software by the Organisation shall cease immediately. The enduring provisions of the Contract, including without limitation those relating to non-disclosure, shall remain in force.

In consideration of the access to the Software granted to it, the Organisation undertakes not to divulge any part of, or any information concerning the Software to any third party whatsoever, whether in machine readable, written or verbal form. This clause also covers such written documentation relating to the Software as may be provided by the CCDC.

The Organisation recognises and accepts that, because of the experimental nature of the Software, the Organisation shall use the Software and documentation supplied under this Agreement at its own risk. In no event shall CCDC be liable to the Organisation for any loss or damage of any kind (except personal injury or death resulting from CCDC's negligence) arising from the Organisation's use of or inability to use the Software or any documentation supplied with it, or from faults or defects in either, whether caused by negligence or otherwise.
